

Pat Lawson (2011)

It's a good thing there is no limit to the number of Halls of Fame one can be in, because Pat Lawson would have exceeded that limit long ago. She is a member of the Saskatoon Sports Hall of Fame for golf, basketball, and with the Adilman Aces basketball team which won the Canadian Championship and competed at the 1959 Pan-American Games. The Saskatchewan Sports Hall of Fame inducted her as a multi-sport athlete to recognize her provincial championships in six different sports: swimming, track and field, tennis, basketball, speed skating and golf. The University of Saskatchewan has honored her twice as a member of the Athletic Wall of Fame. She was also recognized by the College of Kinesiology as one of the "First and Best" in 1996.

Pat has competed nationally as a member of Saskatchewan golf teams seven times in the Amateur Women's and twelve times in the Senior Women's. She was provincial Senior Champion five times, and runner-up four times between 1980 and 1994. She won the Canadian Senior Team Championship with Barbara Danaher, Joanne Goulet and Vivian Holizki in 1985 in Montreal - a first for Saskatchewan.

In 1975 Pat was the first woman ever elected to the Riverside Country Club Board of Directors. She chaired the Riverside Ladies Classic tournament from 1988 to 1990. Pat won the Riverside club championship and senior club championship several times each.

Notably, Pat has won the Waskesiu Ladies' Lobstick five times over four decades from 1968 to 1991.

She has given back to the sport of golf as a course-rater for fifteen years, a golf instructor in many towns in Saskatchewan, and a junior golf supporter. She has always been a positive role model for women golfers in the province.

To top off her golf accomplishments, just last year she made her seventh hole-in-one!
